NEW YORK.

DEATH OF TAMMANY.

NEW YORK, November 8.—No election in many years has been as full and peaceable and as fair as that of yesterday. In all but four of the Assembly Districts of this city either the Republican or Reform candidates were elected. Sigel's majority for Register is 25,000. Bennet, for the Supreme Court, beats Ledwith, the Tammany nominee, by a heavy majority. Tweed is the only candidate for the Senate elected. Eighteen Republican candidates from the city are elected against three Tammany candidates. The entire county ticket of the Committee of Seventy is elected, and all the reform candidates for Alderman. The vote fell behind the registry in many districts. In the State probably twenty-two Republican Senators against ten Democrats are elected. The Assembly will be largely Republican.

NOBLE RESPONSE.

The Times says the people have nobly responded to the appeals which have been made to them, and we have gained a greater victory than we dared to hope for. Once more can we be proud of our city and State, and rest in perfect security that the long reign of rascals and outlaws is over.

LEGISLATURE REPUBLICAN.

The World says: Returns from the State indicate the election of the Republican ticket by at least 20,000 majority. As it never rains but it pours, the majority may be even more than this. We have lost the Legislature, and the Republicans will not fall far short of a two-thirds vote in either House.

CANDID ADMISSION.

The Star, Tweed's paper, says: "We have met the enemy, and candor compels us to announce we are very decidely their's." There is no good in blinding the fact that Tammany's ticket is overwhelmingly defeated.

BROOKLYN GONE DEMOCRATIC.

The Brooklyn Union this morning concedes that the city has gone Democratic, but stoutly maintains that it has been carried by dishonest counting. Powell, Democratic, was elected by 13,000 over Booth, and 10,000 over both Booth and Kalbfleisch.

The State Democratic ticket in Brooklyn was carried by 10,000 majority.

TAMMANY HALL CLOSED.

Tammany Hall was not opened last night. Isaiah Rynder addressed a small street assemblage from the steps, eulogising the Reformers, and stating that Tammany was not the Democratic party.

REPUBLICAN MAJORITIES.

A few additional complete county returns increase the Republican majority. Wyoming county, 1,500. Washington county, nearly 4,000, and Oneida county 2,000 Republican majority.

All the fifteen Anti-Tammany Aldermen were elected in the city, and fifteen Anti-Tammany and six Tammany Assistant Aldermen were also elected.

MRS. WOODHULL PROTESTS.

Victoria Woodhull and Tennie Claflin offered their votes yesterday, but were refused. Mrs. Woodhull protests in a lengthy card.

FROM THE INTERIOR.

A few additional returns from the interior of the State show an increased Republican majority, and also show an increased return of Republicans to the Assembly.

DENIALS.

Fisk denies leaving the city on election day through fear that the Ninth Regiment would be called out.

O'Brien denies that he made any compact with Tweed, but, on the contrary, supported Sigel throughout.

TAMMANY SMASHED.

The Express says Tammany is completely smashed.

Further returns from Brooklyn confirm the previous dispatches that the Democratic city and county ticket is elected by about 8,000 majority. The vote cast in the Twelfth ward exceeds the total male residents. On the State ticket the Republicans gain one Senator and two Assemblymen.

PRESS COMMENTS.

The Commercial says the election yesterday shows that the people can vindicate their claims to self-government. It urges a continuation of the reform organizations.

The Post congratulates the public on the victory yesterday, as an evidence that the people are capable of self government over thieves.

TWEED'S MAJORITY.

Tweed's exact majority is 12,984, a loss of 10,000.

The Assembly will stand 71 Republicans to 57 Democrats.

NEW YORK, November 8.—Further election returns show that Johnson, Democrat, is elected to the Senate from the twenty-sixth district, making that body to stand 24 Republicans and 8 Democrats, including 1 Tammanyite, Tweed. In the Assembly the Republicans have about 40 majority. Horatio Seymour is defeated by Thomas C. Fields by 1,341 to 2,218. Samuel J. Tilden has 3,000 majority. Aleck Frear, Tammanyite, has 15 majority in the fifteenth district, with one precinct to be heard from. Hall, Democrat, is elected in the twenty first district. Curtis and Sedgwick, Democratic Reform and Republican, are chosen for the Superior Court over Jones and Spencer by about 22,000. Spaulding, Republican, is elected for the Marine Court by 21,000. Barrett's majority over Ledwith is nearly 44,000.

In Brooklyn Powell's majority is 4,329 over Booth, while the latter beat Kalbfleisch 6,128.

NEW YORK, November 8.—According to the estimate of the Albany Evening Journal, the Legislature will stand:—Senators, Republicans 24, Democrats 6, Reformed Democrats 2; Assembly, Republicans 90, Democrats 33, and Reform Democrats 5.

NEW YORK, November 8.—Hall, the Tammany Democrat in the Twenty-first Assembly District, was defeated by Whitbeck, Democratic reformer and Republican.

The complete vote for Aldermen in this city stands: Tammany 47,801, anti-Tammany 73,392.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., November 8.—The Republicans fired one hundred guns over the result of the election.

MEETING CALLED.

The Chairman of the Republican Committee of Brooklyn has called a meeting for to-morrow to take measures to contest the alleged fraudulent election.

TAMMANYITES SURPRISED.

NEW YORK, November 8.—There is a general feeling of demoralization among the Tammanyites. Many of them, confident of their election, were surprised at the result. As a general thing they spent largely of their means. It is said some few of them are wholly bankrupt.

Last night Tammany Hall was deserted. The enthusiasm of the members who could be found at the club rooms throughout the city seemed to have departed.

The Reformers believe Rossa would have defeated Tweed had he been given a fair show at the polls. Thieves and rowdies had control of this district, which accounts for the result. The election is to be contested.

DOWNFALL OF TAMMANY.

The great victory for reform was the principal topic of conversation to day in all circles throughout the city. At the City Hall, where flags were displayed in honor of the result, the politicians of Tammany seem to be bewildered. Upon the door of the Mayer's office was a large placard, as follows: "The downfall of Tammany Hall."

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT.

Leading Democrats in the State and city are beginning to talk about nominating Charles O'Connor as the Democratic candidate for the next Presidency.

MINNESOTA.

THE REPUBLICAN VICTORY COMPLETE.

ST. PAUL, November 8.—The returns are in from most points reached by telegraph, and indicate the election of the Republican State ticket by from 8,000 to 10,000. Governor Austin runs some behind his ticket, as does also Jennison for Secretary of State, owing to a division of the Scandinavian vote for Falk.

St. Paul and Ramsey county give Young, Democrat, for Governor, but 32 majority, while Buel, Democrat, for Lieutenant Governor, has a majority over Yale of 512, and Falk, Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, has a majority of 5,902 over Jennison. The Republicans elect Heard for Senator in the Twenty-third District by 255 majority, and Nichols for Senator in the Twenty fourth District by forty-six majority, and Lanborn, Firkey and Smith for Representatives by a majority from 100 to 400. The Democrats elect Rice and Burbank for Representatives by majorities of 45 and 99. The latter was also running on the Republican ticket. The Democrats elected the rest of the party ticket, with the exception of the County Attorney, W. W. Erwin, Republican, who was elected by 300 majority.

The Pioneer concedes the election of Austin for Governor.

The Press comments significantly on the fact that at the last election the Democratic majority against Austin was 2,027, while this year it is but 32.

NEW JERSEY.

LEGISLATURE REPUBLICAN.

NEW YORK, November 8.—The Republican General Committee, of New Jersey, concede that the State has gone Democratic by 4,000 majority, but the Legislature is Republican.

It is conceded that the New Jersey Legislature will be Republican. Parker, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is elected by three or four thousand majority.

NEWARK, November 8.—The latest returns from all parts of New Jersey indicate that Parker, Democrat, for Governor, is elected by about 4,500 majority, being about the same as Governor Randolph had three years ago. The Legislature is Republican in both branches. The Senate has twelve Republicans and nine Democrats; the Assembly thirty-eight Republicans and twenty-two Democrats. The Republican majority on joint ballot is nineteen, being a Republican gain of four members.

Newark city gave Parker 826 majority, being a Democratic gain of about 1,600 over the charter election last month.

NEWARK, N. J., November 8.—The State returns since morning indicate a majority of about 5,000 for Parker. In the legislature the Republicans have 37 Assemblymen, and the Democrats 29; Senate, 12 Republicans to 9 Democrats. Complete returns may vary these figures a trifle.

ARKANSAS.

ENTIRE BROOKS TICKET ELECTED IN LITTLE ROCK.

LITTLE ROCK, November 8.—Official returns from all the wards elect the entire Brooks ticket, headed by General Catterson for Mayor, by an average majority of two to one. General Catterson is the lately suspended United States Marshal, and represented the Republican opposition to Senator Clayton. His election is regarded as a rebuke to the President for the removal of Catterson, the late Marshal; Whipps, late U. S. District Attorney; Brooks and Patton, late Assessor and Collector of Internal Revenue, and Hodges, as Postmaster, in this city. The rejoicing among the opponents of the State and National administration is very great.

THE PRESS ON THE ELECTION.

LITTLE ROCK, November 8.—The Evening Journal, Brooks' paper, rejoices greatly to-night at the result of yesterday's election. It says: The city ring is beaten. The thieves and ballot box stuffers are routed, horse, foot and dragoons. This great victory of the honest people over the plunderers is the beginning of their downfall. They have reached their zenith. In this capital their infamy culminated, and the people have given them the first terrible blow which, faithfully followed up in other localities and in next year's election, will consign them to the oblivion their crimes merit. A fouler pack never infested any municipality. A more terrible rebuke has seldom been bestowed. Let the people take heart. What has been done in Little Rock can be done throughout the State.

The Republican Senator's (Clayton's) organ makes no comments.

ILLINOIS.

REFORMERS TRIUMPHANT.

CHICAGO, November 8.—The entire official vote of this city has not yet been obtained, but Mr. Medill's majority for Mayor is about 11,250. Mr. Gage's majority for Treasurer is a little larger than this, while the balance of the ticket is a little less. The total vote will be near 24,000. Beveridge, Republican candidate for Congressman at large, has about 3,000 majority in the city, and about 5,000 in the city and county. He is elected by probably 30,000 in the State. Of twenty Aldermen elected in the city, fifteen are "fire-proofs" and five "bummers."

VIRGINIA.

CONSERVATIVE MAJORITY.

NEW YORK, November 8.—A Richmond special says that Virginia has given about 20,000 of a Conservative majority, with a two-third Conservative majority in the Legislature.

RICHMOND, VA., November 8.—The election returns to day indicate the House delegates to be about the same political complexion as the last, which was two-thirds Conservative. The Republicans have probably gained one or two Senators.

KANSAS.

REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

ATCHISON, November 8.—The entire Republican ticket was elected in this county yesterday by majorities ranging from 85 to 500. In Donaphan, Nemeha and Marshall counties the Republicans elect their officers.

ALABAMA.

THE LEGISLATURE.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., November 8.—Samuel F. Rice, a leading Republican of Alabama, is defeated for the Legislature by Knox, by over 30,000 majority.

MARYLAND.

THE STATE TICKET.

BALTIMORE, November 8.—The Democratic majority on the State ticket will be about 12,000.

GENERAL ANDERSON'S REMAINS.

LONDON, November 8.—The remains of General Robert Anderson will be conveyed to America on the United States steamer Guerriere.

NINE HOURS A DAY.

The mechanics and laborers employed in the ship-yard of the Messrs. Laird, at Birkenhead, have held a meeting and unanimously resolved to insist upon a restriction of the day's labor to nine hours.

LONDON "TIMES" ON THE NEW YORK ELECTION.

LONDON, November 9, 6 A. M.—The Times, in a leader on the election in New York, says it rejoices in the defeat of Tammany, congratulates the electors on the result, and hopes an example will be made of the men guilty of corrupt practices.

CHICAGO RELIEF FUND.

The Chicago relief fund at the Mansion House amounts to £47,600.

FRANCE.

PERSONAL.

PARIS, November 8.—The Duke De Broglie left for London this evening.

The Duke De Harcourt has also taken his departure, to resume his post at Rome.

It is thought probable that Goulard will be assigned to the Italian mission.

COMMISSION OF INQUIRY.

PARIS, November 8.—The Commission of Inquiry on the capitulations made by French Generals, during the late war, is prosecuting its investigations with great vigor. Marshal Bazaine, who had already appeared before it, has now sent a voluminous report of the siege of Metz, together with letters received by him from Napoleon during the investment. It is said that the judgment of the commission will bear with great severity on those principally responsible for the surrender of the fortress.

PROHIBITION.

The Minister of War has prohibited the circulation of newspapers in barracks and camps.

CANADA.

SCHOONER LOST.

HALIFAX, N. S., November 8.—The fishing schooner Fitz E. Riggs, of Gloucester, was lost with all hands on the Grand Bank.

OPENING OF PARLIAMENT.

QUEBEC, CANADA, November 8.—The first session of the second Parliament opened to-day. The Lieutenant Governor, in his speech, congratulates Parliament on their progress since the confederation, and recommends the continuance of the policy of railroad extensions. Several emigration agents have been appointed to European States. Their labors are gratifying. An improvement in the laws of administration and justice are recommended. The condition of the finances is encouraging.

MEXICO.

REVOLUTION SPREADING.

MEXICO, October 30, via Havana, November 8.—Anarchy prevails in many States of Mexico. The revolution in Nuevo Leon still continues. The revolutionary movements are spreading to other provinces. The revolutionists of Zacatecas have invaded the State of San Luis Potosi. Numerous bands of men are sacking villages. Robberies are committed in sight of the gates of the city.

The authorities of the State of Oaxaca neglected to promulgate the re-election of Juarez.

HOLLAND.

NETHERLANDS TRADING COMPANY.

AMSTERDAM, November 8.—In view of the recent negotiations with the British Government in regard to the Dutch possessions in Asia and Africa, the "Netherlands Trading Company," which has long acted as a broker for the Government in its East India trade, has held a meeting to consider the policy of continuing its organization for a further period of twenty-five years. The decision unanimously arrived at was to adopt that course in preference to closing its operations at present.

AUSTRIA.

THE BOHEMIAN DIET.

VIENNA, November 8.—The Bohemian Diet, in session at Prague, voted unanimously against electing a delegate to the Reichsrath. The government has in consequence ordered the immediate closing of its deliberations.

GERMANY.

CONFERENCE OF DIPLOMATS.

BERLIN, November 8.—A conference of diplomats is to be held at Dresden at an early day, to devise precautionary measures against the International Society.

CHICAGO.

Report of the Relief Committee.

CHICAGO, November 8.—The Executive Committee of the Chicago Relief and Aid Society have published an official financial statement of the amount actually received up to November 7th, which is $2,050,000. The amount actually subscribed is about three million five hundred thousand dollars. This includes six hundred thousand dollars in the hands of the New York Chamber of Commerce and two hundred and fifty thousand dollars in the Boston fund, which was not placed to the credit of the fund.

The Society is now aiding about 60,000 persons. The committee say the great matter pressing upon the committee is shelter for the coming winter. To this end we have been aiding those burned out to replace small but comfortable houses upon their own, or upon lots where they can live, not only during the next summer, and be ready to work in rebuilding the city. Of these houses, which are really very comfortable, being sixteen by twenty-five feet, with two rooms, one twelve by sixteen feet, and one eight by sixteen feet, with a planed and matched floor, panel doors and good windows we have already furnished over 4,000, making permanent houses, allowing five to a family, for 20,000 people, and with the seven thousand houses which we expect to build shall have rooms for 35,000 people. These houses and some barracks, in both of which is a moderate outfit of furniture, such as stoves, mattresses, and a little crockery, will consume, say $1,200,000, leaving $2,250,000 with which to meet all the demands for food, fuel, clothing and general expenses from the 15th of October last, when we undertook the work, until the completion of the same, which cannot possibly end with the present winter.

FORT WAYNE.

Wm. Wadington's Remains.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., November 8.—William Wadington's remains were conducted to the depot this morning by the largest funeral procession ever witnessed in this city. The Knight Templars, Masons, Odd Fellows, firemen, city officials and policemen were out in full force. At least five thousand persons were at the depot to witness the departure of the special train carrying his body to Allegheny City for interment. Mr. Wadington has been master car-builder and inspector on the Fort Wayne road for the past fifteen years. He was a prominent and respected citizen. The railroad offices and engines, city buildings, &c., have been draped in mourning in honor of the deceased.

SECOND EDITION.

FOUR O'CLOCK.

THE CAPITAL.

Indian Affairs.

SQUATTERS ON OSAGE LANDS.

International Cases Decided.

THE PUBLIC DOMAIN.

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, November 8, 1871.

SUPREME COURT.

All cases continued at this term of the Supreme Court of the United States after Monday next will be put at the foot of the calendar for the next term, unless otherwise specially ordered by the Court. This will put off all cases so continued over for at least two years.

INDIAN AFFAIRS.

The President and Secretary of War had a conference relative to the squatters on the Osage lands. If they shall not remove, in compliance with the notice of the Secretary of the Interior, they will be ejected by military force.

Vincent Colyer has received a letter from indian Agent Stout, dated Gila River, October 19th, complaining that the white men on the line of the Gila River had taken the water to themselves, so that the Indians were deprived of the means for irrigating their ground for agricultural purposes. Chief Chin Kum had announced his intention of asking permission to take one hundred men, women and children down to drive the whites off. The Indians will have to move away if the water does not come, or else starve. These tribes have heretofore been peaceable. They claim the lands on which the whites are now settled.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

The low barometer west of the Mississippi will probably move northeastward, with southerly winds and rain from the Gulf coast to Kentucky, and northeasterly winds in Wisconsin and the upper lakes. The winds will probably back to the southwest on the lower lakes; northwesterly winds continue on the middle and east Atlantic coast; cloudy and rainy weather extend on Thursday over Lakes Erie and Michigan; partially cloudy weather on the south and middle Atlantic; a rising barometer and clearing weather in New England. Dangerous winds are not anticipated for our coasts this evening.

CASES DECIDED.

In the cases of Aaron Brooks, C. H. Gorsch Garrison and Fritz Christine Eigendorff, administrators, &c., and Carolina Shroth, before the United States and Mexican Joint Commission, the umpire decided in favor of the claimants against Mexico. The Commissioners decided to receive decrees of municipal courts of countries parties to the treaty under which the commission sat.

ARIZONA INDIANS.

General Schofield will be placed in control of the Indians in Arizona. He will be instructed to bring them all in upon the reservations and keep them there. They will be fully protected in all their rights while on the reservation. If they leave to go on the war path they will be punished.

THE PUBLIC DOMAIN.

The returns at the Land Office show that over 132,000 acres passed from the Government to individuals in Augusta and Humboldt (Kansas) land districts alone during October. The cash receipts were nearly $64,000. Some settlements were under the homestead act.

RECOMMENDATIONS APPROVED

The President has approved the recommendations made by the Secretary of the Interior that the Apaches be protected while peaceably remaining on their reservations, but if they refuse to come in they are to be pursued and treated as enemies.

THE INDIAN COMMISSIONERSHIP.

Walker, the Superintendent of the Census Office, will probably receive the appointment of Commissioner of Indian Affairs, provided an increase of salary shall be procured.

THE GENEVA CONFERENCE.

The Administration has not yet learned whether Benjamin R. Curtis will accept the position of associate counsel before the Geneva arbitration.

REPORT COMPLETED.

The report of the Comptroller of Currency for this year is completed. Its principal recommendation relates to protection against counterfeiting.

UTAH.

Murderers Arrested.

SALT LAKE, November 7.—Philip and Daniel Jones and a man named Wright were arrested this afternoon by United States Marshal Patrick, for the murder of Bennett, whose body was found near the city about a week ago, and who was reported to have been killed while in the act of stealing horses. It is said now, and generally believed, that Bennett was shot in cold blood on account of a woman.

MORMONISM.

SALT LAKE, November 8.—The Salt Lake Herald to-day, in a leading editorial, denies the statement that polygamy was not part of the Mormon faith prior to the passage of the act of the territorial legislature of March 6th, 1852. It was practiced before that period by the Mormons, and that four out of thirty-nine of that legislature were practical polygamists, and believed in the doctrine. But the Herald gives no evidence that it was approved or authorized by the Mormon Church previous to August 29th, 1852.

SEVERE WEATHER.

The weather is reported extraordinarily severe in some of the mining districts in Big Cottonwood to-day. The snow was four feet deep on the level, with fearful drifts. As high as thirty dollars was offered to carry sixty pounds of provisions up the Canon, but no teamsters could be found to attempt the passage. It is feared that the miners will suffer for want of food.

PERSONAL.

General C. C. Augur and family arrived yesterday. The General is said to be acting under instructions from the President. He leaves to-morrow evening for Washington.

The Mormons say that Brigham Young is at St. George, and that he went there to attend the Semi-Annual Conference for that part of the Territory.

MASONIC.

Preparations are making to organize a Grand Lodge of Masons for Utah.

MINING.

Raymond & Ely's mill at Piacte made in the last six days a run of $56,600, and expect to increase it this week to $60,000.

CALIFORNIA.

A Fatal Quarrel.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 8.—Joshua L. Jones shot and killed his father-in-law, John Still, on Steward street last night, the result of a quarrel with his mother-in-law.

ARRESTED FOR PERJURY.

Wrestling Joe, the claimant to the Caruther's estate, including Caruther's addition to Portland, Oregon, has been arrested for perjury. It is claimed that his name is Davidson, not Thomas, and is an imposter. He is ninety years old, and is from the vicinity of Cincinnati.

PHILADELPHIA.

The Wounded Policeman.

PHILADELPHIA, November 8.—The wound received by Police Officer Jones in Camden, N. J., is dangerous. The person who fired the shot was in the company of a party of Philadelphia policemen and is a special policeman from Philadelphia. Efforts are making for his arrest.

NEW YORK.

Piano Factory Burned.

THIRTY-TWO FIREMEN INJURED.

Park Improvement Bonds.

TWO HOTELS DESTROYED.

NEW YORK, November 8, 1871.

FIRE.

Deitham & Faner's piano factory on Tenth avenue was burned this morning. While a number of firemen were engaged at one side of the building in putting up ladders to carry up the hose, the roof fell in, causing the side walls to fall over, burying eleven firemen in the ruins. The other firemen and police immediately worked a way to the ruins and finally rescued them alive, though two are believed to be fatally injured. Assistant Engineer Rhodes is one of the injured. The building was owned by J. P. Hale, the owner of the piano factory, on Thirty-sixth street, which fell and killed several people last year. The falling of the building extinguished the fire. The loss by the burning of the factory is $8,000. Insured.

Later.—It appears that thirty-two firemen were injured by the falling wall of the piano factory on Tenth avenue this morning, and two policemen, but all will recover. The damage to the building is twenty thousand dollars.

UNFOUNDED RUMORS.

There were various rumors current this evening to the effect that Tweed had resigned as head of the Public Parks Department; also that he had left for Europe. There appears to be no foundation for either. On the contrary, there is good authority for the statement that Tweed has no intention of resigning.

PARK IMPROVEMENT BONDS.

At a meeting of the Board of Apportionment to-day, the raising of seven hundred thousand dollars on park improvement bonds at seven per cent. was authorized. The Excise Commissioners were required to deposit to the credit of the board the money remaining on hand. The meeting was not attended by Tweed, Hall and Sweeny, however, were present.

TO BE CRUSHED.

The papers in the case of Tweed and Fields were procured from the sheriff by the attorney for the prosecution, to make some amendments. Charles O'Connor stated that Fields would be arrested as soon as found. The Committee of Seventy are fully determined to crush these men. It is not probable that Fields will run away.

TO BE ARRESTED.

Measures will be taken by the Reform Committee to arrest those accused of violating the election laws and engaged in a false canvass of votes, and who refused admittance to the polling booths to the watchers appointed by the committee.

KEYSER AND INGERSOLL.

A private dispatch states that John H Keyser is in Aiken, S. C., where he bought a plantation.

Ingersoll is still in Portland, where he has a quarry.

AN ASSAULT.

An assault was committed upon the paymaster in the City Chamberlain's office by a reporter who was told he could not see Bradley. The reporter was arrested.

HOTELS BURNED.

The Trivolean Hotel and Railroad House, two of the largest hotels on Coney Island, were destroyed by fire last night. Loss about $50,000.

LADY VOTERS.

Mrs. L. D. Mansfield, the lady principal, and other ladies of the Rockland Institute at Nyack, voted yesterday.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.

Daniel Flynn shot Morris Slack this morning in a political altercation. Slack will probably die. Flynn escaped.

MEETING OF INVENTORS.

A number of inventors will meet here on the thirteenth of December, for the purpose of forming a national union.

ARRIVED.

The steamer Cambria, from Hamburg, has arrived.

LOUISVILLE.

Convention of Steamboatmen.

LOUISVILLE, KY., November 8.—The Convention of steamboatmen of the Ohio and Mississippi valleys met at the Galt House at two o'clock this afternoon. About one hundred and twenty delegates are in attendance. Several Congressmen were present. Organization and the appointment of business to the various committees occupied the afternoon session. Different sections of the steamboat law were divided among the committees on the different subjects, who will probably report on them to-morrow. The Convention will visit the canal in a body to-morrow afternoon, and will be entertained at a banquet at night.

Later—At the steamboatmen's convention, Mr. Jno. S. Newberry, of Detroit, was elected President of the convention. The apportionment to the committees was completed in the night session, and convention adjourned until ten o'clock to-morrow.

Col. Jilson P. Johnson, of the Galt House, invited the reporters present to dine at the Galt House during the Convention.

TENNESSEE.

F. & A. M.

NASHVILLE, November 7.—The Tennessee Grand Council of Free and Accepted Masons is in session here. After the usual preliminaries, the Committee on Foreign Correspondence submitted their report, with resolutions, which were adopted, approving of the proposition of the Grand Council of Maine for calling a convention of representatives from all the Grand Councils of the Royal and Select Masters to meet in New York in June, 1872, for the purpose of securing uniformity in the Ritual of Cryptic Rite, welcoming the Grand Council of Minnesota to the Sisterhood of the American Grand Councils, expressing unfeigned pleasure at the interest displayed for Cryptic Masonry in Canada, and extending the hand of fellowship, recognition and correspondence to the Grand Council of Ontario, and appointing Robert Ranny as Grand Representative, to convey the greetings to the new Grand Council.

MICHIGAN.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

DETROIT, November 8.—Governor Baldwin, by proclamation, appoints Thursday, the 30th of November, as a day of thanksgiving and praise. He says: While as a people we have enjoyed much of earthly happiness and been blessed with the abounding mercies of God, we have been permitted to see the uncertainty of earthly possessions in the devastating fires which have brought desolation to many families, and suddenly deprived thousands of our citizens of the rewards of industry and toil. Let us lift up our hearts to God for His great mercies toward us, for the earnest sympathy and charity which have so largely alleviated the sufferings of our afflicted people; let our thanks giving find expression in acts of benevolence and deeds of charity to the sorrowing, the sick, the poor and the needy, and let us invoke the Divine blessing upon our State and our nation.

ST. LOUIS.

Singular Phenomenon.

ST. LOUIS, November 8.—A letter to the Democrat from Rolla, Mo., mentions a singular phenomenon occurring there. It says a continual rain has descended for two weeks from a cloudless sky, and confined to a space of only two feet in diameter. The phenomenon has been observed by many persons, and the writer asks for a scientific explanation.

Test Case.

CINCINNATI, November 8.—The right to vote of the veterans in the National Soldiers' Home at Dayton, about three hundred of whom were rejected in the October election, is to be tested in a contested election case.

RAILROADS.

I., C. & L. Declared Bakrupt.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 8.—The following decree was entered in the District Court of the United States to-day. In the matter of the First National Bank of Lawrenceburg, Ind., vs. the Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Lafayette Railroad Company, at the court house of the United States, at the city of Indianapolis, on the eighth day of November, 1871. This cause came on to be tried in said District Court, and there being no opposition to the same, the court, after hearing the proofs, and upon consideration, find that all the matters and things alleged in the petition are true. It is, therefore, adjudged that the said Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Lafayette Railroad Company become a bankrupt within the true intent and meaning of the act entitled "an act to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy thoughout the United States," approved March 2, 1871, before the filing of said petition, to wit: October 18, 1871, and the said Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Lafayette Railroad Company is therefore declared and adjudged a bankrupt accordingly, and it is further ordered that said bankrupt shall within five days make and deliver to the marshal as messenger a schedule of their creditors and an inventory of their estate and effects in the form, and verified in the manner required of the petitioning debtors under said act.

AID TO CENTRAL R. R. DEFEATED.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., November 5.—At the election yesterday the proposition to subscribe one hundred thousand dollars to the Central Railroad was defeated by a vote of 331 to 698.

WILMINGTON AND WESTERN R. R.

We find the following in the Fourth Annual Report of the Wilmington Board of Trade, for which we are indebted to Mr. Geo. W. Stone, the Secretary:

This road concerning which so much has been said in the preceding Reports of this Board, is, we are happy to announce, in course of construction. This road, so important to Wilmington, will be completed and running, about July, 1872. The stock is all taken, the contracts all let, the finances of the road are on a safe basis, and the success of the enterprise is, to all appearances, already assured. Important as this road is to our city, its exposition and connection with the western lines along the southern counties of Pennsylvania are much more important, nor is Wilmington alone interested in the connection of these lines. Every interest of southern Pennsylvania, whether mining, agricultural, manufacturing or commercial, is joined with ours. Pittsburgh will, in her thousand fires, can find through this line another outlet to tide-water for her productions. The crude material from mines and forges of the coal and iron districts of this rich territory, can find here in our busy city a large market both for consumption and distribution. The people along these lines, which now need hardly anything but welding together, must soon move in a matter of such vital importance to them, and whoever may control the lines in the future, make a certainty of their being built, that their country may derive the benefits which its development is sure to bring.

MONTREAL AND BOSTON

The South Eastern County Railroad in Canada, which was formally opened on Monday of last week, by connecting with the Passumpsic River Railroad, will shorten the distance between Montreal and Boston about thirty miles, besides opening up large tracts of county hitherto without railway communication. The railroad is built in a most substantial manner, all the station houses are of brick and contain every convenience, and the cars are of the best make.

WISCONSIN.

Thanks to the People.

MADISON, WIS., November 8.—The following is issued to-day:

Executive Department, State of Wisconsin, Madison, Wis., Nov. 8.—To the People of the United States.—The Relief Committee inform me that the supply of clothing on hand and in transit ready for shipment would be sufficient for the sufferers by fire in this State, and that no further contributions of this kind are needed now. Your generosity has comfortably clothed the needy for the winter. They would not tax your liberality a moment longer than is necessary, and gratefully thank you for your liberality and timely aid.

[Signed] LUCIUS FAIRCHILD,
Governor of Wisconsin.

GEORGIA.

The Legislature.

ATLANTA, November 8.—The Senate has passed resolutions denying the existence of a Ku Klux organization, suggesting to the Ku Klux Committee to summon the Judges of the Superior Court as witnesses, and offering legislative aid to enable the committee to get at all the facts of the alleged disorder.

The House passed a bill repealing the act to prevent the collection of taxes of 1867-'68-'69.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—The first snow of the season fell at Rockland, Maine, on Tuesday night, covering the ground to the depth of two inches.

—Wm. Mills, a noted counterfeiter, was covicted, at Cincinnati, of selling counterfeit money and was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary.

—Frank Winslow, of the Boston Journal, while stepping from a car at Newton, Mass., on Tuesday evening, was struck by another train and instantly killed.

—The Board of Directors of the Longview (Ohio) Lunatic Asylum, on Tuesday, resolved to institute suit against Doctor Langdon, former Superintendent, to recover funds alleged to have been misappropriated.

—The North German Lloyd steamship Ohio, from Bremen, arrived at the European Pier, Locust Point, Baltimore, on Monday morning at eight o'clock, with a cargo of assorted merchandise for Baltimore and the West, and brought eighteen cabin passengers and five hundred and sixty-four emigrants. The emigrants left for the West by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

ON THE ACTION OF LIGHT IN SMALL-POX.

It has long been known that chemical changes can be effected by light both of combination and of decomposition, especially the latter, and that substances in great numbers are found more or less susceptible to its influence. Many instances might be given of this. Chlorine and hydrogen at ordinary temperature will not combine except when acted upon by light. In organic chemistry examples in plenty abound, as the salts of silver, etc. It is generally the luminous parts of a ray of light that effect this. In them lies the chief chemical action, and this exists even when the light is feeble, although in some cases of every kind of ray a substance might be found which, if circumstances were favorable, would be acted upon by it. This power has received the name of actinism, and is distinguishable from the heat-giving rays by being refrangible to the highest degree.

Animal and vegetable nature are peculiarly susceptible to the influence of light, their colour being in a great measure dependent upon its action. If a plant is allowed to grow for any length of time in the dark the leaves and stalks are destitute of color, and it bears no seed. An animal living in the dark loses its color. Man especially is most sensitive to light, his skin becoming of a peculiar waxy hue when he is deprived of it; and when constantly exposed to its effects his face and hands get deeply colored. This is in persons with their ordinary health.

The sensibility of the skin varies greatly in different parts of the body. Weber, to prove this, applied the points of a pair of compasses to it. In some places the two points can be felt as a great number of cases which have been under this treatment, that when the patient has been seen early—that is, before the appearance of the eruption—the general history is as follows:

First, second, and third days.—Patient is suffering from fever, and from the well-known symptoms of small-pox. Has been complaining some days. The room to be darkened; profuse sponging, etc., with the first arsenical mixture to be given; quiet in bed enjoined; milk diet, etc.

Fourth day.—Eruption is beginning to show itself; less fever, etc., but itching of the skin has commenced. No powder to be used, as this author finds does more harm than good; it fills up the pores of the skin, preventing perspiration, either insensible or otherwise. Cold cream, the lime liniment, or sponging to be used instead. The same mixture, etc., to be repeated.

Fifth day.—The eruption well out, with slightly inflamed base; less fever. The same treatment continued.

Sixth, seventh and eighth days of the disease (third, fourth and fifth of the eruption).—The eruption progresses in the ordinary manner, but the fever has nearly subsided, except in the more severe forms of the disease. Appetite returns. Same treatment continued.

Eighth, ninth and tenth days of the disease (sixth, seventh and eighth of the eruption).—The pustles, instead of being converted into pustules, get less and less, their contents being absorbed, or they dry up into a brown scab, which comes away in the ordinary manner. There is no secondary fever. The patient feels quite well, eats well, and is in fact free from the disease.—Lancet.

Cotton Markets.

CHARLESTON, November 8.—Cotton firm; middlings, 17¾@17¾c; net receipts, 1,469 bales; exports to Great Britain, 2,332; coastwise 1,172; sales 300; stock, 23,479.

NEW ORLEANS, November 8.—Cotton easy; middlings, 17¾@17¾c; net receipts 1,891; exports coastwise 2,874; sales 500; stock 89,714.

SAVANNAH, November 8.—Cotton irregular; middlings, 17¾c; net receipts 3,185; exports to Great Britain 2,210; coastwise 1,169; sales 1,700; stock 48,790.

MOBILE, November 8.—Cotton in good demand; middlings, 17¾c; net receipts, 1,355 bales; exports coastwise, 2,549; sales 1,000; stock, 23,967.

THE Board of Health, at their last meeting, in considering the best means for the prevention of small-pox, although they established several wise provisions, forgot one very important recommendation. This was that each individual citizen should use every precaution to retain his system in good order, for the small pox only attacks those whose physical condition has become enervated. To this end they should have advised every family to keep at home and use regularly and moderately Pier, Dannals & Co.'s Bottled Cream and Oregon Ales.

REPUBLICAN CITY TICKET.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1871.

FOR MAYOR—B. W. MORGAN.
FOR TREASURER—C. L. MAGEE.
FOR CONTROLLER—R. J. McGOWAN.

BONDS at Frankfort 96¾.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 111¼.

GENERAL SHERMAN, the American Moltke is going to Germany to have a talk with Count Moltke, the German Sherman.

THE Pittsburgh Post still warmly advocates Colonel Thomas A. Scott, the "Cincinnati Enquirer's candidate for the Presidency."

IN ELECTING Hon. Joseph Medill, editor of the Chicago Tribune, Mayor of Chicago, the citizens did well, and secured for themselves an executive officer of large intelligence and unimpeachable honesty.

WHAT is the meaning of the singular report that comes to us that buffalo are more numerous just now in the West than they have been for years? Has the fact that General Sheridan and party were hunting them anything to do with this?

THE Courier Journal objects to the release of the debtors from the New York prisons. We had not expected this, for, although that paper does generally give proper credit when it copies from other papers, it is still in debt to Pittsburgh for a vast number of terminal "hs."

THE STOCKHOLDERS of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad will be called upon to vote on the question of ratification of a lease of the road to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, at Cleveland, on the 24th inst. The decision will be in the affirmative beyond all doubt and the lease thus accomplished.

IN OUR local columns this morning we present a correspondence between Senator Simon Cameron and many of the leading citizens of Oil City. He has been invited in a most cordial manner to visit the oil regions and has consented to do so, but does not designate the day on which he will receive the hospitalities of his many admiring friends in that section of the State.

THE POSTMASTER GENERAL, in his forthcoming report, will recommend the passage of a law to punish persons for making "straw bids" for carrying the mails. Much time, labor and expense is wasted by irresponsible persons putting in bids, who are wholly unable to comply with the law and their contracts. This sometimes makes it necessary to go over the entire work of asking for proposals.

WE have had controversial novels of almost every denominatial tenor, but we believe that the first out-and-out ultra ritualistic one, is that announced as about to appear in England from the pen of the renowned Father Ignatius, who almost died not long ago from the effects of colds that he had taken from walking around the streets in his bare feet. The title of the new book is "Leonard Morris or the Benedictine Novice."

ACCORDING to a Chicago paper, the demand for pieces of the bell of the court house in that city is so excessive that two car loads have been shipped from the city to supply country demand, and one curbstone dealer is supposed to have contracted with a Pittsburgh brass founder to supply the extraordinary demand. Pittsburgh has always been famous for her bells, and we do not wonder that there is a demand for them in Chicago.

GEORGE O. EVANS has been released from custody on the charge of embezzling funds belonging to the State, having furnished the required bail of $100,000 for his appearance. The bondsmen are Dr. Paine, Darius Baker and William Morgan, of Philgdelphia, and Dr. Shope, of Hummelstown, Dauphin county. Dr. Paine qualified that he was worth, above all encumbrances, $100,000, Mr. Baker $200,000, Mr. Morgan $75,000 and Dr. Shope $20,000.

THE Boston Post of Monday said: "The nomination of Hon. John Quincy Adams as delegate to the General Court from his native town of Quincy is one which commends itself in every way, and will not fail of an overwhelming support. The proverb that "no prophet it without honor save in his own country," finds its refutation in the distinction which Mr. Adams enjoys at home." And on Tuesday Mr. Adams was defeated by an increased Republican majority.

THE Post had out three roosters yesterday, one for New Jersey, one for Virginia, and one for Maryland. It should have put out one for TWEED. It had nothing to say about New York. Minnesota, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Mississippi or Illinois. A short time ago we heard that Doolittle, Democratic candidate for Governor of Wisconsin, was certain to defeat the gallant, patriotic and popular Washburne. Our Wood street neighbor appears to have been mistaken. It had better shout for Tweed and keep up appearances.

OUR Irish and German fellow-citizens are reminded of the support Democracy gives to foreign-born candidates, by the way that party treated General Sigel and and J. O'Donovan Rossa, in New York. Although the latter patriotic citizen was running against TWEED, the most infamous scoundrel of the Tammany Ring, yet he is defeated, so precious is this darling thief to the Democracy of New York. General Sigel and O'Donovan Rossa were supported by the Republicans, because they are honest men, Tweed by the Democrats. Comment is unnecessary.

PETER B. SWEENEY, in his letter of resignation as Commissioner of Public Parks in New York, grew quite witty and facetious. The reasons which prompted such action were "overruling"—doubtless a view of Sing-Sing confinement. The position was "attended with no pecuniary compensation" but was "exceedingly agreeable to him in the opportunity afforded to advance important public improvements and in the pleasant official relations [Tammany ring] which he enjoyed." There is so much richness in the language of the sleek plunderer that we incline to believe that Peter has been taking lessons in the Mark Twain school of composition.

THE CONVENTION of the representative delegates of the militia of the Commonwealth, now in session at Harrisburg, is a most intelligent body, from whose deliberations we anticipate much good to follow. It is a matter of interest that our military volunteer system should in every possible way be strengthened and perfected, and that our citizens should be practically educated in time of peace in the arts of war. There is enough military enthusiasm throughout the Commonwealth to ensure thorough organization of the militia forces, provided the Legislature affords the necessary aid in the way of sound practical laws and regulations under which to operate. The present system is notoriously defective and falls far short of those under which the volunteers of other States are organized. The convention now in session, however, will discuss and adopt some general law which their wisdom and experience will dictate, and ask the Legislature to adopt it and repeal all others that now hinder the advancement of our military interests.

A PROJECT has been started in London for laying a submarine cable from Lisbon, via Madeira, the Canary and Cape Verde Islands, to Rio Janeiro, in South America. This is part of the object of the present visit of the Emperor of Brazil to Europe, who is anxious to open up the largest possible commercial relations with the rest of the world. Lines are completed from Montevideo through the continent to the Pacific coast, and this line across the Atlantic will put the western and central portions of South America in direct telegraphic communication with Europe. There is no doubt that this grand enterprise will be pushed forward to completion at an early day.

THE IMPORTANCE of the present political crisis in Austria can hardly be over-estimated, and if the report of the resignation of Count von Beust be true, it would seem as if some radical change were about to take place in the policy of the Empire. Von Beust, it will be remembered, was elevated to the Chancellorship immediately after the disastrous war of '66, and at once began the re-organization of the Empire, and the policy, which has apparently been so successful, of abandoning all idea of leadership in Germany and conciliating the Eastern provinces. Under his administration Hungary has been pacified and Austria has been more completely united than seemed possible before he assumed the reins of government. Then, too, the Empire has enjoyed a religious freedom unknown before and the ultra-montane or Roman policy which was an Austrian tradition, has been thrown off. Naturally, a reformer so bold made many enemies. The whole powerful clerical party opposed a man who so curtailed their privileges; many of the ancient Austrian noblemen could not readily brook the elevation of a foreigner above them, and, liberal as his administration has been, there was a large class of malcontents, Republicans and Slavists, who were dissatisfied. For years the Count has fought this opposition successfully, and carried out his ideas with eclat. But against their combined attacks he was powerless, and, according to the reports, has succumbed. As a diplomatist and organizer, he is second to no one, excepting, perhaps, Prince Bismarck, and the Emperor will seek in vain for a successor who can fill his place.

THE ELECTIONS.

Again has victory crowned the efforts of Republicanism, this time in the States of New York, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Massachusetts and Mississippi. The people of those States have spoken out plainly and emphatically, that between Republicanism and Democracy, they choose that the former shall remain in the ascendant. The management of the affairs of these States is entrusted again in the hands of the representatives of our party. In New York the result was chiefly attained through the wide spread belief, that so corrupt and dishonest had the Democratic party in that State become, a change of rulers was absolutely necessary. The same can be said, as truthfully, with reference to the others; the people have confidence in our party leaders and believe that the Republican party is the party of progress, of honesty, of economy and reforms. This is a proud position to hold after ten years of trial, during which period the charge of conducting to a successful issue, the greatest civil war recorded in history was placed upon us; and after withstanding the snares of the pathway of success, and the abuse of our enemies, heaped upon us without regard to truth or mercy even. We heartily and cheerfully congratulate our party, and our country, that victory is once again ours; that the schemes of Southern sympathizers, who would gladly send our proud fabric of a free government to pieces, have come to naught; that the even tenor of the good way selected by the administration for the conduct of national, financial and commercial affairs, will not be disturbed; that theft and outrage as exemplified in the past years of the history of the Democratic party in New York city, and State, have been rebuked by honest voters of the great Empire State; that our principles and our past labors, have been endorsed by the intelligent masses of the States named above, as well as of those which voted for our continuance in office in October; in a word we congratulate the honest, peace-loving portion of our country that by these last elections the country has set the seal of condemnation on the truculent and unprincipled demagogism of the janus-faced, mis-named Democratic party.

The past, with all its vivid recollections of their perfidy to the Union, their subserviency to the slave power; their opposition to the war for the preservation of the nation's life; their brotherhood with traitors, and their respect for treason, have not been forgotten in this latest contest, and the conviction has forced itself upon every honest, intelligent, unbiased mind, that the party which preserved the Union, and has proved itself equal to every emergency and every demand, is the proper party to lead us along in the paths of safety, peace and progress. This is a glorious endorsement by the people, this is a fair expression that their liberties, their wealth, their prosperity, the good name of our loved America, are all safe in the hands of the Republican party, and now let us verify this confidence reposed in us by the nation. Let a stern, unyielding justice pervade our every thought and action; let every servant be held to a strict accountability; let the flame of public morals be placed upon an eminence so high that none but the pure can stand its dazzling light, and the impure will seek darkness and obscurity. If any fall out by the wayside, and yield to the temptations which must inevitably surround those charged with important trusts, let the ax fall with unrelenting severity, to the end, that we show all the world we can afford to be just, even with our own kindred.

A great responsibility rests upon us, and we trust we shall continue to so act, that when the history of these times shall come to be written, it will be recorded of us, as of him of old, "Well done, good and faithful servant." In this way shall we justify the faith placed in us, and by the contrast between our good works, and the corruptions of our enemies where entrusted with power, shall we prove to the world that the Republic has received no detriment at our hands. A glorious future awaits our country, let us do our share to hasten it forward.

FASHION GOSSIP.

Costumes---Dress-Goods---Wraps---Head-Gear.

There is comparatively little change in the style of street costumes from last season. The general effect remains still the same, although there may be alterations in some of the minor points. One thing of considerable importance may be said just here—demi-trains for the street, that were so popular in the early part of the season, have almost entirely disappeared, and costumes now are made just to clear the ground when walking. The attempt to keep the demi-train was entirely unsuccessful, although its admirers tried their very best to make the fashion a lasting one; but the sensible women outnumbered the silly ones, and the effort at last was but an unsuccessful one. The underskirts are trimmed a great deal, and in various styles; the narrow ruffles are much in favor, and so are deep flounces put on with a cluster of side plaits, then a plain space, then the cluster of plaits again; festoons of ribbon or velvet are looped across the plaits, fastened in the centre of the plain space with a low or very full half rosette with ends. The overdresses are made with short, wrinkled apron fronts, some of them scarcely more than a half a yard in depth, while the back is very long and full and decidedly paniered. The attempt to put aside paniers has been so far quite as unsuccessful as the one to introduce trains in walking costumes. A stylish belle shudders at the thought of a plain gathered or plaited skirts, and puckers and puffs and paniers more decidedly than ever. For overskirts, lace or fringe with passementerie heading is decidedly the thing, and where fringe is used, and it can be afforded, it is knotted into the material itself, forming a very graceful finish. The bodies are made entirely with basques, and round waists are entirely out, except the plaited waists of last summer for negligé costumes, which keep their place in favor of wearers for their ease, simplicity and comfort. Sleeves are neither the close coat sleeve nor the immense flowing drapery, but a compromise between the two; most of them fitting quite close to the elbow, then falling in a frill from there. Polonaises are as popular as ever, the Marguerite being at present the favorite. This is quite simple in style, fitting closely to the figure, and then making a deep, very full basque for the skirt, which is looped up on each side by rosettes of broad gros grain ribbon, the ends falling down on to the underdress. More elaborate than this, and exceedingly stylish, is the Leoni, or Louis XVI. shaped afair, with long vest of velvet, with cuffs and collar to match, and a long, full back of heavy twilled silk. These are only two of a family whose members are numbered by the score, but they are the two that just now are the most highly in favor. Besides these there is the Beatrice, dignified and stately as its name; the Mousquetaire, stylish, piquant and jaunty; the Berenice, elaborate and heavy with masses of passementerie and embroidery; the Carlotta, the Adelina and all the rest of the sisterhood of romantic names.

DRESS GOODS.

Cashmere, soft and clinging, still holds the foremost rank among the wool goods, and after it come the all-wool delaines, and a new French wool material, broken across the surface with dashes of silk in the tiniest bars, called Epinglines. These are in all the warm colors, of which fauve or Lodon smoke are the favorites, though there is the rich plum that borders on the red, a fruit-like color, shewing the juicy dashes of wine through its lustrousness, and the marine blue that is always so popular and pretty. Yet notwithstanding all these innovations of color, black still holds its own and is considered the most distingue. Plaids are in high favor, made in the warm, soft material—such an improvement on the stiff, harsh-looking poplins that have been offered for so many seasons. A favorite plaid is the black and white, with a line of blue or gold color relieving the cold plainness. Satins are as plenty and popular as last year and assert themselves saucily in every store, while the Empress cloths lay their claims before the public and always find them respected and themselves entirely appreciated. What would any woman of us all be without our alpaca or brilliantine, the old-time standby? When silks become a snare and a delusion, cracking in the seam and otherwise misbehaving—when the virtue has gone from cashmere and the gloss and beauty from satins—when Empress cloths no longer gladden the heart, and Epinglines fray and fret—when disorder and decay and general shabbiness attack her wardrobe, then she comes out triumphant in her reliance, in the hour of such trial, known only to the feminine soul, her alpacca or brilliantine, always of the buffalo or sable brand, for like a prudent woman, looking well to the ways of her household, she always gets the best. The prices of these materials range from fifty cents to one dollar, so that a costume from either is cheap as well as well as serviceable.

WRAPS.

For evening wear cashmere wraps, creamy in coloring, artistic and graceful in design, and elegant and elaborate with heavy masses of embroidery in gold and silver and bright-colored braids, in every conceivable pattern. These are lined with white silk, and are much more graceful and light than the white cloth capes that have been so much worn for seasons past, and that are now discarded to make room for these lighter but equally warm and protecting garments. Counters are piled high with shawls, Oriental in coloring and design, while by them lie the soft, sensible gray traveling shawls, the best protections in the world for this changeable climate.

HATS AND BONNETS.

These are so nearly alike in shape and style of trimming, that were it not for the strings which dignify bonnets it would be difficult to tell them apart. The latest hat is is called the Alexis, and is a beaver, trimmed with three shades of color; the shape is round, as most of the hats are. Now and then one sees a turban or a hat with rolling brim, but they are the exceptions, rather than the rule, and are very little worn, all the new shapes coming with slightly drooping brims, and very high, soft crowns. Flowers are scarcely used at all for trimmings—feathers, wings and aigrettes having taken their place. Jet ornaments are also very much used, and add a great deal to the beauty and richness. A favorite style of hat is of black velvet with long, curling ostrich plumes, fastened in place by a colored aigrette. This is easily removed, and is changed to match the color of the gloves and necktie of the wearer, and being quite inexpensive, they are bought by the quantity. In this way every one may have a hat to match her costume, and the uniformity of color may be kept up with very little expense. Bonnets are wonderful, principally on account of their height. They stand up several inches from the head, with their marvelous arrangement of plumes and bows; but in spite of that they are stylish and pretty, and gain ground every day. There is a deal more to say about evening costumes, dinner and reception robes, and all the little dainties of the toilette, that will be said by and by to the Post readers. In the mean time possess your souls in patience.

A Strange Career.

Gen. Joseph Harlan, of Philadelphia died in San Francisco a few days ago. About the year 1820 he landed in Hindostan, and traveled inland through the British possessions into regions under the native governments of Asia, which he penetrated as a scientific traveler, and among those sovereigns he made himself at home and a favorite. In Persia, Cabul, and Afghanistan he spent nearly twenty years. He rose to high command in the army of the conquering Dost Mohammed, and introduced modern military tactics among the Orientals. At last, returning homeward through Egypt, Turkey, Germany and Great Britain, he resumed the quiet of his youth in Philadelphia. At the rising of the rebellion—though in his seventh decade—he promptly offered his services to the government. He was commissioned as a Colonel, and led down to the Army of the Potomac the largest regiment of cavalry embraced in it, and which he commanded until severe sickness obliged him to withdraw.

Iron Ships for Lake Business.

There are four steamers being built at Buffalo for lake service to be completed next season. Two will be launched in April and the others in July. When completed they will be the largest and most valuable vessels afloat on the lakes, having an aggregate freight capacity for 260,000 bushels of wheat. The dimension of each will be as follows: Length, 240 feet over all; breath of beam, 35 feet; depth of hold to moulding, 19 feet. They will be built with five compartments with watertight iron bulkheads, and furnished with a patent water-bottom, which enables them to ship and discharge water ballast. The motive power will be a direct-acting cylinder of twenty inches diameter and thirty-six inch stroke. The diameter of the condensing cylinders will be forty inches. Each steamer with machinery and all complete will cost about $175,000, and will have a freight capacity for 2,000 tons.

A PANORAMA of the great fire covering five hundred feet of canvas is now exhibiting in Chicago.

Terrible Affair in Bedford County.

The Huntingdon Journal says: The residence of Jacob Long, residing at the Steam Saw Mill, on the Bedford and Chambersburg turnpike, a short distance below the Juniata Crossings, in Bedford county, was consumed, with all its contents, including Mrs. Long, who was in the neighborhood of ninety-five years of age, and the only person on the place, on last Thursday. Mr. Long was from home at the time of the sad occurrence, and when he returned he found his wife and residence burnt to cinders. It is supposed that the old lady, who was still very active, had been baking, as she intended to do so when Mr. Long left home, and the house caught fire from the stove pipe. An armful of household goods were found out of the way of the fire, from which circumstance it is supposed that she had gone into the building to save what she could, and that the upper part of the building fell in upon her, and the sad fate which we have above recorded befel her.

A Tale of San Francisco.

Hospitality is a virtue, but abuses of its privileges are so common that one is tempted to regard it as generally a matter in theory than in practice. That is to say, it is a virtue to be exercised with caution, and of the truth of this opinion a Mrs. B., of San Francisco, has been disagreeably convinced. Mrs. B is described as one of those ladies moving in the "best circles," and lately she was informed by letter that a beautiful and accomplished niece of an intimate friend was about to make her a visit. Glad to welcome an eastern belle, Mrs. B. determined to omit nothing that could render her guest's stay pleasant. In due time Georgie Mandeville arrived, and her beauty, her rare accomplishments, and, above all, her luxuriant golden tresses, became at once the theme of conversation among the San Francisco bachelors. The story is easily guessed: She came, she saw, she conquered. A wealthy broker offered the fascinating niece his hand and heart, and being fortunate in his suit, pressed for an immediate marriage. Mrs. B. rejoiced, and to her rejoicing came the anxious niece: What should she do for a trousseau? she had written to her banker, but it took time to receive money. Of course Mrs. B. was only too glad to advance the necessary $5,000, and a magnificent array of laces and other goods was at Miss Georgie's disposal. Meantime, having told her predicament to her bethrothed, he too had handed his check for a like amount to his enslaver. As they say on the stage, "Exit Georgie; enter police." A trunk of cast off clothing and a profusion of golden hair was all that the fictitious niece but clever swindler had left behind her.

Small Pox in a Street Car.

The Philadelphia Star publishes the following:

A singular scene occurred in one of our city railway cars a day or two since. A physician entered the car, and, after sniffing around, exclaimed, "There's small pox in this car!"

All the passengers immediately vacated, except one lady, who remained seated in the corner.

The physician went to her and asked: "Haven't you had the small pox?"

"Yes," replied the woman, with a woebegone look, "I have. I have been put out of my boarding house, and cannot find any place to rest myself, so I got into the car in downright desperation, and made up my mind to ride up and down until I could make up my mind what to do."

The physician took the homeless woman in charge, and, we believe, secured her admission to a hospital.

THE Rochester Chronicle of the 4th inst. says: It is reported that the contractor yesterday laid the last rail on the Danville Railroad. A train will run to Danville for the first time to-day. It therefore appears that the road has been finished much sooner than was expected. This connects Danville by railroad to Rochester. The event will create great enthusiasm up the valley and be appropriately celebrated

CORNS.

The complete solvent and destroyer of Corns will be found in the Corn Solvent sold in pencils, which is touched to the corn, or bunion, or wart, and in a few days it is completely dissolvid and the place left fmooth and healthy. Be careful to get none but those sold at KEYSER'S, 167 Liberty street, as many of the Solvents made in imitation of these are worthless. Price 50 cents; 60 cents by mail.

THE MARTYRS OF NEGLECT,

It is not too much to say that tens of thousands are now suffering from biliousness, indigestion, constipation, periodical fevers, general debility, and nervous affections, who might be restored to perfect health within a month or less by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The multitudes who have been cured of these and other ailments by the use of this well-known socetic are always ready to testify to its virtue as a preventive and a remedy. They are spread over the whole country; they are eager to praise and recommend it; and yet, notwithstanding its vast popularity, there are many invalids, and many who are continually exposed to the epidemical diseases, against which it is a sure protection, who, either through indifference or incredulity neglect to seize the opportunity to cure and means of prevention, which they have only to reach out their hands to obtain. This is strange; it is one of the anomalies of human nature which it is impossible to account for or explain. It is, however, quite certain that every day the number of these Martyrs of Neglect is diminishing. This is proved by the statistics of the sales of the great remedy. During the present fall the demand for it has increased beyond all precedent, and it seems as if in the end the entire community would realise the important fact, that when all other medicines prescribed for the above complaints fail, it can and does effect a cure. As a protection against the diseases most common at this season, there is nothing comparable with it.

Finance and Trade.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, October 8, 1871.

There is the same complaint in financial circles of an increasing demand for loans. First class paper, double names, discounts from 9 to 12 per cent. per annum. Good collaterals at 60 days about the same. The stock market feels the pressure for money less sensibly—but there is more disposition to sell. We learn of sales of Allegheny Valley 7-30 Bonds at 92 a day or two since; 92¾ was bid for a small lot to-day. Bank stocks are steady but the investment demand is not large at present. There is some demand for Gas Consolidated stock at 39. Holders are asking 39¾@39½.

—The Chicago Tribune says: Of the fifty and odd insurance companies that have suspended, seven or eight are responsible for more trouble with their policy-holders on terms that are not at all satisfactory to the latter. The Merchants, of Hartford, pays 40 cents on the dollar; the Connecticut, of Hartford, offers 50 cents down and 5 cents more in 90 days; the Merchants, of Hartford, also, offers 50 cents. The Manhattan, of New York, makes different offers to different policy holders, ranging from 25 to 40 cents on the dollar. The Astor, of New York, compromised with one policy-holder at 30 cents, gave him a sight draft on New York, which was refused payment, and the draft was protested. The Security, of New York, seems to have adopted the plan of worrying its policy-holders with expense, and does not say anything but make ambiguous intimations through its lawyers, who seem to have made up their minds that 50 cents on the dollar will be satisfactory to themselves as a basis of settlement. The losses of the Security in this city were $1,500,000. It has also experienced losses in the late fires in the Wisconsin pineries to the estimation of $500,000, making total losses of $2,000,000. Against this it had, at the last official report, available assets to the amount of $1,400,000, or something over 70 per cent. of its total losses. Its policy-holders being cognizant of these figures, naturally feel dissatisfied with the offering of 50 per cent., which is accompanied by the implied threat that, unless they accept, the company will be put into the hands of a Receiver, and the settlement of their claims delayed for a year or two.

NEW YORK, November 8, 1871.

Gold has been dull and steady all day at 111¾@111¾. Loans were made at from 1-64 to 2-32 per cent. for use, and later in the day at 2 per cent. for use. The daily clearances were $61,000,000. Governments were steady all day, and there were eleven proposals for bonds amounting to over $2,000,000 at 111 24/32@112; one million was advertised for, to be taken at 111 24/32@111 25/32. Stocks, although improved, were not active, but rather firm at the close. Money was easy on call all day at 5 to 6 per cent. State bonds quiet; new South Carolina active; Tennessee dull and steady.

Sterling Exchange, long bankers bills 108¾.

GOVERNMENTS.—U. S. sixes of 1881, 115¾; 5-20s of '62, 111¾; do '64, 111¾; do '65, 111¾; do new, 113¾; do '67, 114; coupons of '65, 113¾; do '67, 113¾; do '68, 113¾; currency 6s, 111¾.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, November 8, 1871.

ASHES—Common Soda ash, 4 cts; refined do, 4¾@4¾; Pearls, 9¾; Pots, 7¾; Nitrate Soda, 4¾@4¾.

APPLES—Market continues dull with continued liberal receipts, but there is no change in prices; $1.50@2.00 per bbl for common to fair, and $2.50@3.00 for good to prime.

APPLE BUTTER—Sales of prime to choice, in small packages, at 65@70 cts.

BEANS—Quiet; quoted at $2.00@2.50 per bushel for common to good, and $2.75@3.00 for prime to choice Navy.

BUTTER—There is a continued good demand for strictly prime roll, with sales at 28@32. Common and medium qualities dull and in good supply.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—We can report sales, in a small lots, at $ 4@4.25 per cwt in bulk.

CRANBERRIES—Sales of Jersey cultivated at $11@12 and Sackett's Belle Berries at $18 per bushel.

CIDER—Is generally reported slow, though prices remain unchanged, $5@6 per bbl.

CORN MEAL—Is very quiet and the demand is mainly of a retail character; may be quoted in small lots at 85@90 cts per bushel.

CEMENT—Louisville, $2.50@3.00 per bbl; Rosendale, $1.00@4.50; Calcined Plaster, $4.25@4.50.

CHEESE—Is reported steady, and, if anything, a shade firmer, but unchanged; 15@16 for factory New York Goshen; 13@15¾ for Ohio Goshen; 14@15 for Factory, and 13@13¾ for Dairy. We understand that York cheese is now held at 14¾ at Buffalo, and some small purchases have been made there for this market at that figure, making it cost 15 cts at the depot here.

CARBON OIL—Is a shade lower; may now be quoted at 32¾@33¾ for standard brands, in a jobbing way.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches quiet and unchanged; halves, 10@11; milled, 8@8½; quarters, 6@7½. Apples—6@6¾ for good southern and 7@7¾ for prime high western.

EGGS—With continued light receipts and an average demand the market is steady at 23@26 cts. As is always the case when eggs rise in price above 25 cts, the consumption falls off, and the bakers and hotels are now the principals buyers.

FLOUR—Dealers generally report the market dull, with no change whatever in prices. Good spring extras, $7.00@7.25; choice Minnesota bakers flour, $7.50@7.75; good to prime red winter wheat, $7.25@7.50. Rye Flour, $5.00@5.25.

FEATHERS—No. 1 live geese feathers quoted at 72@73 cts for round lots—usual advance in small way.

GRAIN—There is but little doing in any kind of grain, and with slightly increased receipts and offerings, prices are weak, though without quotable change; the impression prevails to some extent that there is a large amount en route for this market, and, in consequence, dealers generally are disposed to realize, being apprehensive of the future. The arrivals of wheat continue meagre but with a limited demand the market is quiet and unchanged, $1.40@1.43 for good to prime red and 95@1 cts more for white. The western markets have been offish for some days past. Oats weak though without quotable change; good mixed to prime white may be quoted at 42@46—we are cognizant of offers to sell at these quotations to-day. Rye is irregular and difficult to quote correctly; sales are reported at 85, 88 and 90 cts. New Corn is quiet and unchanged; 52@60 cts on wharf and track. Barley is reported slow, and, notwithstanding, the offerings are not large, prices are barely maintained; 80@85 for fair to choice spring and 85@90 for fall.

GROCERIES—It is very difficult to give anything definite in regard to coffees, as the deadlock in New York still continues. Importers are not offering, being well aware if they did, that it would tend to make matters (for them) still worse; they are carrying considerable stock, not only in New York but all over the country, and, as noted in our last report, they are obliged to pick up about all that is put on the market for sale. Sugars continue dull and the tendency is to a still further decline; refineds are down 12¾@12½ in New York, for hards—the lowest point touched for the season. Molasses quiet. Syrups weak and lower.

A Malicious Scholar.

Quite a sensation occurred on Wednesday morning in the Seventh ward schools, Franklin street, by an outrageous act perpetrated by one pupil on another. An unruly boy, in room No. 9, out of pure maliciousness, pushed the head of Bertrand Spreyer, a little son of Mr. Peter Sprever, against one of the desks with considerable force, cutting a gash on the side of his head, from which the blood flowed freely for some time. The child was so much injured that it was found necessary to send him home. It is said that a considerable quantity of blood and hair remained sticking to the place against which he was pushed for some time afterward.

Woman Killed by a Coal Train.

About half-past five o'clock last Friday evening another railroad accident happened, by which an Irish woman received such severe injuries as to cause her death in a few hours. It appears that the woman, whose name is Mrs. Miles, got on a car of a coal train that was standing near Shanbo's Furnace on the Erie & Pittsburgh Railroad, a short distance this side of Sharon, and was engaged in cleaning off coal. When the train started she attempted to jump off, but in doing so fell under the train, the wheels passing over her, cutting off one of her legs and mangling one of her hands. After lingering till midnight, death put an end to her sufferings.

Army of the Cumberland—Reunion.

The Society of the Army of the Cumberland holds its annual reunion at Detroit, Michigan, on the 15th and 16th of November next:

The members of the Seventh, Ninth, Fifteenth and Nineteenth Illinois cavalry; the Seventy-seventh and Seventy-ninth infantry; Stevens' battery and Mather-Anderson troops, and all other Pennsylvanians who served in the Army of the Cumberland, are requested to be present. Arrangements are now being made for half fare tickets over the various railroads, and those who expect to attend should at once notify Gen. A. S. Williams, Chairman Executive Committee, Detroit, Michigan, of their intention, so that all necessary arrangements may be made for their reception.

Charge Against Officers.

Lieutenants Hague and Doak, of the Mayor's police force, arrested an old colored woman, who resides in Church alley for being disorderly one night last week. Yesterday an information was made against them, and a hearing had at Alderman Moreland's office, on a charge of assault and battery on the colored woman, whose name is Elizabeth Snively, being the prosecutor. A number of witnesses testified that such an assault had been committed, while several others deposed in a point blank manner to the contrary. Owing to the conflicting testimony the alderman felt justified in holding the officers to bail for court. It is but proper to state that the Mayor, in deciding the case, charged the officers found nothing in it to prevent the imposing of the fine customary in such cases. The house is one against which complaints without number have been made before Mayor Brush, by order-loving people.

Couldn't Drown Her.

Frank Hixenbaugh and Mollie Fischer, two damsels who reside in St. Clair borough, repaired at the same instant of time to the same identical well to replenish their watering pots or whatever vessels it may have been. It appears that the woman, whose name is Mrs. Miles, got on a car of a coal train that was standing near Shanbo's Furnace on the Erie & Pittsburgh Railroad, a short distance this side of Sharon, and was engaged in cleaning off coal. When the train started she attempted to jump off, but in doing so fell under the train, the wheels passing over her, cutting off one of her legs and mangling one of her hands. After lingering this mild-ness, death put an end to her sufferings.

Hixenbaugh and Fischer then presented the following:

Resolved, That in the building of a hospital we advise the speedy erection of a building in the most desirable location, large enough and convenient enough for present purposes, and at as little outlay as may be possible. It is moved by

Mr. Evans' motion that a committee of one from each borough, who shall then have the privilege of selecting a third party, who will be the committee to choose a location was carried, and Mr. Evans was appointed on part of Birmingham, and Mr. Bitemiller was appointed on part of East Birmingham.

Dr. Arnholt then moved that a similar committee of three be appointed on part of Birmingham, and Mr. Gearing on part of Birmingham, and Mr. Pearson was appointed on part of Birmingham, and Mr. Gearing on part of Birmingham. These committees have power to act immediately, and it is believed that both committees will go to work to-day or to-morrow.

Dr. Thomas moved that a committee be appointed to procure the necessary nurses, and stock the new building, when built, with the beds and the necessary appurtenances, Dr. Riggs and Mr. Hughes were appointed.

A warrant for $38 was ordered to be advanced in favor of the Health Officer.

Each of the committees reported in regard to the hospital having the right to appoint an additional member to their committee, the following appointments were made: Messrs. Evans and Bitemiller, committee on choosing the site, appointed Dr. Arnholt to act with them.

Messrs. Gearing and Pearson, committee on building the hospital, appointed Dr. Wood.

Messrs. Riggs and Whelen, committee on furnishing the hospital, procuring nurses, &c., appointed Dr. Thomas.

On motion, adjourned to meet next Wednesday evening.

The Cathedral and St. Bridget's corner bands will be in attendance.

A SOUTH SIDE HOSPITAL.

Joint Meeting of Birmingham and East Birmingham Sanitary Committee Last Evening—Committee Appointed and Empowered to Erect a Hospital.

The Sanitary Committee of East Birmingham and Birmingham met in joint session last evening in accordance with a resolution adopted at the last meeting of each committee.

Present: Birmingham, Messrs. Evans, Pearson, Thomas, Knowls, Riggs and Welker. East Birmingham, Messrs. Arnholt, Gearing, Pears, Bitemiller, Hughes and Wood. Mr. Welker, presided.

The Secretary, Doctor Thomas, read the minutes of the previous meeting, which were approved.

Health Officer Smith, of Birmingham, reported that as far as he could ascertain, there are now 71 cases of small-pox in that borough.

No new cases have been reported for Wednesday, but one for Tuesday and none for Monday.

Dr. Woods, from the Sanitary Committee of East Birmingham, being present, stated that in that borough there were 39 cases of small-pox at present. This week so far, there have been four deaths from small-pox in Birmingham and four deaths in East Birmingham.

Dr. Thomas stated that he had written out a report to the Council, and that Council voted the committee an appropriation of $500. Report accepted and approved.

Dr. Woods criticised severely the action of the Councils of both boroughs for not delegating the power of building a pest house to the Sanitary Committee, but leaving it to the committees of their bodies, which would occasion more delay. He also spoke of the burning shame that there are so many persons who are not vaccinated, and a still greater number who have not been vaccinated lately. He asked, "Can we do nothing to have people vaccinated? I am getting tired of small-pox."

Mr. Wood moved that the Sanitary Committees of Birmingham and East Birmingham each appoint a member, they to be a committee to investigate into the different laws relating to other Boards of Health, and see to the getting of the necessary legislation to adopted by the Board of Health of the South Side. Carried.

Dr. Wood requesting not to be placed on the committee, Dr. Arnholt was appointed by East Birmingham, and Dr. Thomas for Birmingham.

Mr. Hughes then spoke against calling the proposed building a pest house. He wanted it called a Hospital. That name was then adopted. It was then agreed that the committee composed of committees appointed by the councils of both boroughs was holding a meeting in another apartment. They were called to meet with the Sanitary Committee and requested to make a statement as to what they had been doing.

Burgess Jones then arose and stated that he was one of a committee appointed to see about getting a hospital built. The committees of each borough met here this evening for the purpose of seeing that the matter of building the hospital was put into proper hands and as soon as possible too.

Dr. Kerr stated that as a committee of council this body would be willing to delegate the power for building the hospital to the Sanitary Committee.

Mr. Arnholt then presented the following:

Resolved, That in the building of a hospital we advise the speedy erection of a building in the most desirable location, large enough and convenient enough for present purposes, and at as little outlay as may be possible. It is moved by

Mr. Evans' motion that a committee of one from each borough, who shall then have the privilege of selecting a third party, who will be the committee to choose a location was carried, and Mr. Evans was appointed on part of Birmingham, and Mr. Bitemiller was appointed on part of East Birmingham.

Honorable and Dear Sir:—Having for a long time been exceedingly anxious that you should pay Oil City a visit, for the good of city and region, we the undersigned citizens of the city of Oil City, do most cordially extend to you an invitation to that end.

In doing this we take occasion to say that we deeply feel the importance of such a visit to us, from the peculiar industry, as well as certain and gigantic growth cannot fail to be of interest to one who has for so many years devoted the best energies to the development of the material industries of Pennsylvania. For this and for the high appreciation and admiration of your character as a citizen and Senator, we would wish you to accept our invitation.

We should have communicated with you earlier upon this subject, but that we feared the pressure of time and your many national affairs to permit a visit. We hope now, however, that the occasion is opportune and that you will be pleased to indicate such time or day as will enable us to prepare a reception of fitting importance and by such honors our devoted admirers." THE ACCEPTANCE.

HARRISBURG, PA., November 3, 1871.

Dear Sir: Absence from home for some time has caused a delay in the acknowledgement of the kind invitation which you so courteously tender me on behalf of the citizens of Oil City, to visit your important and wonderful region, and I am unable to say when I shall enjoy the pleasure of meeting you, but I shall certainly do so and appreciate before I return home, especially with your request that I should do so. The mere acceptance of a civility such as you pay me is insufficient either to satisfy me of the appreciation of this courtesy or to notice the terms in which it is conveyed. It is no light thing to visit the petroleum region, and to hasten to the scene of the most important industrial career by rich gentlemen as have joined you in signing the letter I have received. The reference to my wealthy position and to the interests of all American industry is the perfect reward which is so rare in the world and so encouraging to those who have persistently clung to one policy through triumph and through defeat. This is no egotism on me to claim to have done in a life-long struggle for the protection of American industry and development—and while you may say things much higher than they deserve—my conscience is free that I have never failed to uphold with all my power what I believed to be right and just.

Please convey my regards to the gentlemen who sign with you in the letter which I have received by me. Very truly your friend,

SIMON CAMERON.

Wm. M. Williams and others, Oil City, Pa.

THE OLD STORY.

Another Fatal Railroad Accident.

Of late, the recurrence of accidents upon the various railroads, in and about this city, has become so painfully frequent, that absolutely nothing short of a serious or more accounts of such disasters would be damazing to the interests of any city paper. The latest casuality occurred on the Ft. Wayne Railway, in the Company's yard yesterday. About noon a young man named Charles Bruff, a brakesman in the employ of the road was engaged in coupling cars to a freight train. The train was being backed slowly up to the cars, which were a few hundred feet off. Young Bruff had taken hold of the link of the rear car and was walking back ward with the train, when he was caught between the rail and the planks laid in the yard, throwing him down. He fell with his right leg directly across the track. The train moving slowly, was very quickly stopped, but not until the wheel of the first truck had run upon his leg, remaining in that position and holding him firmly. Jacks were procured without delay, and the car raised and Bruff extricated from his terrible situation, when it was found that the member was badly crushed and mangled and was severed from the body. He was removed to the Western Pennsylvania Hospital where Dr. Buchanan was summoned and attended to his injuries. He lingered in mortal agony until about five o'clock last evening when death put an end to his sufferings.

Bruff was about twenty years of age, unmarried and resided with his parents at Salem, Ohio. His father is Colonel Joseph Bruff, member elect of the next Ohio State Legislature. Parties in the distressing occurrence were immediately telegraphed to him.

Coroner West has been notified and will probably hold an inquest to day.

CITY POLITICS.

Meeting of the Executive Committee—Preparing for Work.

Yesterday afternoon the Republican City Executive Committee held a meeting at the Lincoln Club Rooms, to organize and prepare for the municipal elections.

There was a full representation from all the wards in attendance.

Mr. R. C. Elliott was chosen President; Messrs. J. W. Lewis and S. J. Wainwright, Vice Presidents, and Messrs. W. J. Diehl, M. F. Egan, John D. Fleming, Secretaries.

A resolution was passed fixing Tuesday of each week, at two P. M., as the time for meeting, and the Lincoln Club Rooms as the place.

The President was authorized to appoint the standing committees and report to the next meeting.

Adjourned.

Laying of Corner Stone.

On Sunday, the 12th instant, at 2 P. M., the corner stone of St. Joseph's Church, New Brighton, will be laid by Right Rev. M. Domenec, Bishop of Pittsburgh, with appropriate ceremonies. JOE JEFFERSON is playing Rip in Cleveland, Mrs. Ellie Eisler is doing Gretchen, and Miss Eilser Meenie.

HON. H. B. SWOOPE is in Philadelphia under medical treatment of Dr. McCandless, and is improving in health.

THE matter of the opening of Forbes street will be up before the Supreme Court this morning. Parties interested will be present and hear the arguments. We understand that an effort is to be made to have the case dismissed.

M. DE LESSEPS, the engineer of the Suez Canal, has presented to the library of Lafayette College, Pennsylvania, a complete set of the reports and documents relating to that great enterprise. This gift consists of twenty-three volumes, with an atlas of plates.

THE members of A Allegheny Commandery No. 35 Knights Temple, are ordered to meet at the Asylum Masonic Hall, Allegheny, this morning at 9 o'clock, for the purpose of attending the funeral of Sir Knight William Waddington, late of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

YESTERDAY James Mackrell vs. Same name is famous in this community, and who was some time since sent to the Work House to serve a term. was sent to the Penitentiary for ninety-one days, named Fricker, to make brick. Whether they made brick or not, is not stated, but they certainly have a number of cards are now offered for their apprehension.

A LITTLE boy aged ten years, the son of a widow lady named Berry, residing in Mt. Keesport, got hold of an old bottle containing some powder and took it out to the garden to play with it. He got some matches somewhere, and lit one and thrust it into the bottle, which of course exploded, burning the boy pretty badly about the face, and it is feared destroyed both his eyes.

JUSTIN MCCARTHY writes to the New York Mail that John Bright is as well as he ever was, and will remain in Parliament as long as he retains sufficient interest to wholly abstain from any mental exertion whatever. If he should once break that condition, his mind would be gone in a week. There is no prospect that he will ever reappear in public life; his career is over. His physicians have told him that he could not recover from a third mental attack.

YESTERDAY we received through our worthy out and out Republican friend Alex. Aiken, Esq., Postmaster of Fort Wayne, Ind., the forty-first annual subscription in unbroken succession, of Mr. John Weller of that neighborhood. Mr. Weller is a man of many good reason to change from the Pittsburgh GAZETTE, and as he has invariably paid in advance we can only hail him as a subscriber worth having. May he live long and prosper.

ON Tuesday afternoon the West Newton accommodation on the P. & C. R. R. going west, ran into a freight train at the cliff near Braddock's Junction. The engineer reversed the engine and prevented serious consequences. As it was, the forecheer of the locomotive was completely twisted off and the engine itself slightly damaged. Mr. Colliday, engineer in charge of the train on the locomotive, and seeing the danger, jumped off. In doing so, he sustained some injury by having one of his legs considerably bruised and stoved up.

Contributions from the children of Mr. Jas. Dalzell, Philipsburg, $25. Col. William Phillips, President of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, presented the contribution from Martin & Worth, with the following letter accompanying it:

LAWSONHAM, Oct. 24, 1871.

COL. WM. PHILLIPS, President A. V. R. R.:

Dear Sir—Herewith please find our check for two hundred and ten dollars, the citizens of Braddock's Junction, The engineer reversed the engine and prevented serious consequences. As it was, the forecheer of the locomotive was completely twisted off and the engine itself slightly damaged. Mr. Colliday, engineer in charge of the train on the locomotive, and seeing the danger, jumped off. In doing so, he sustained some injury by having one of his legs considerably bruised and stoved up.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Semi-Weekly Meeting—Small-Pox Abating—Concerning a Hospital.

The Board of Health held their usual semi-weekly meeting yesterday afternoon.

Dr. McCandless raised a question about the right of the Board of Guardians to inter certain parties who died of small-pox.

Mr. Edwards explained that when the Board of Health took charge of a case the Board of Guardians had nothing to do with it, and that it devolved upon the former Board to look after its own cases to the end of the chapter.

The Health Officer was instructed to get as much as possible from the patient or his friends towards defraying hospital expenses.

Mr. Gray explained that there had been several applications for burial, which he had referred to the Board of Guardians, and they had always been prompt to attend to such cases.

Mr. Gray said that since the first of the month there had been 95 cases of small-pox reported, and that due attention had been paid to all cases through himself and his subagents. The placards in general were not interfered with. The Board advised where any parties were caught pulling down these notices, they should be prosecuted for malicious mischief. The placards are always posted up whenever there is a case of small-pox known, irrespective of the social position of the patients.

The Health Officer was instructed to use all diligence to obtain information regarding the existence of the disease. The Board regret that the physicians are more liminal in reporting cases. They think it would be desirable to have a law compelling physicians to report every case, or in default impose a penalty.

There were twenty-three deaths last week, a decrease of eight, and eleven so far this week.

There are not so many in the hospitals now as there were a few weeks since, and several are going out daily.

The Board expressed their opinion that patients frequently go out in the most dangerous time, imagining that they are convalescent, thus rendering themselves very dangerous members of society by communicating the disease.

Dr. McCandless spoke about a man that he met going out to work, a few days ago, before he was half convalescent, and urged him to remain a few days longer, wash himself well from head to foot and put on a change of raiment.

Mr. Edwards suggested that the subject regarding the sanitary laws should be put more forcibly before the people, and give the Board more facility for discovering the existence of cases of contagious diseases than at present. He thought that every member of the Board should know where every case of disease existed. Dr. Pearson is in Philadelphia by which this could be done.

Most of the members seemed to be of opinion that the Board should have more power to remove any patient to hospital upon the certificate of a physician.

Dr. Kerr needless thought that the indiscriminate enforcement of this rule would be very hard in many instances, and in some cases cruel.

Mr. Edwards thought that the community in general should not suffer from the ignorance and carelessness of the few in not keeping a patient among a family, where none of them were vaccinated.

Mr. Edwards moved that Health Officer draw up a statement of those points which are necessary for modifications of the sanitary law of the Board a hundred times before the same could be stopped. She was terribly injured, but there are hopes of her recovery.

The eastern mining interest of the Lehigh Valley region will contribute one day's production of coal to the Chicago sufferers, if the railroad companies will agree to carry it free. About 3,000 tons will thus be secured, worth in Chicago half a million dollars.

The East Brady Independent, published by Col. Samuel Young, at East Brady, Clarion county, is about to appear in an enlarged form. A new power press has been introduced and the office building which it occupies. The enterprise of the Independent editor is worthy of all success.

SCRANTON can boast of the champion human calf. Recently a man named Pat McDonough enraged at the horse he was driving, and tying a rope around the poor animal's tongue, actually tore it out by the root. A man who then picked up the bleeding tongue, threw it into his wagon, and drove off.

Wm. Elliott, charged Abraham Alexander with false pretences at Deputy-Mayor Nichols' office. He alleges that the accused obtained goods from his store in the Twelfth ward by falsely representing that he had an ore crusher in Kloman's Mills worth $2,200, besides real estate, making in all $40,000; $71.70 is his indebtedness to William. A warrant was issued.

James Mackrell and a man named Stewart, who recently escaped from the Workhouse were last evening arrested by the officers of that institution, who were in search of them, and lodged in the lock-up. They will be removed to Claremont to-day.

Mayor Cullen, yesterday committed to the House of Refuge, Mike Graham, a youth of 14 years, who was charged by Fred Mensendieck with the larceny of one dollar. Mike has frequently been before His Honor for such offences, and it is thought that a brief term in that establishment will greatly add to his moral welfare.

A Card.

Wm. Semple, 165, 167 and 169 Federal street, Allegheny, Pa., respectfully suggests to his customers that, if convenient for them, during the winter months they can be better attended in the forenoon, as the store is so crowded in the afternoon.
